

We're here (Where?) Shear, shh, they're near Listen, they can detect fear like sizzling bacons and eggs We're next on the breakfast menu, I thus am sensing some ennui
'Cause there's a funny running through my tummy
And I really don't reckon it's appendicitis Ready to get in a fight, thrust
And break something off like a fresh baked pie crust Tireless when I bust spineless dinos up with mindless violence Look, I've got the minds touch, each type of life that I touch is a pile of dust
You might rise up like Lazarus but you can't Hyde, I'll find yo u, trust
I'm biased against a Goliath, wiping him out like a pest or a v irus
You'll never survive unless you're as clever as Caira
And you ain't, I bet you a fiver, my Trapper will track you to base
Even if it's deep as a trap track packed full of bass
I'm cracking ahead, cracking a Kraken in the head He's lacking the cred, man, I'm back in your ends
And attacking your nest so you'll have to defend it My manner and method of wrecking your plans like a Gent is actu ally splendid
That Chap's too cray, tell 2K, pulling your cranium off like a toupée
Keeping up appearances and insist on pronouncing bucket as bouq uet

True say, don't get involved in Evolve if your soul isn't wholl y controlled
To revolve round the goal ripping holes into all you behold
Keep it cold, you've been told
Said, don't get involved in Evolve, if your soul isn't wholly c ontrolled
To revolve round the goal ripping holes into all you behold
Keep it cold, you've been told

Don't say you haven't been Because you obviously have
