

The Gospel According To Trademark West

Dan Bull

Hello sir, good morning
please answer the door
We've been knocking for an hour and we'd really like your attention for a second we've a message for you Bless you
Yes, you need to hear the good news
Of our Saviour, our blessed destiny manifest Let me tell you about our Lord and Saviour, Kanye West

Kanye loves you
and you should love Kanye
More importantly Kanye loves Kanye
Kanye is the brightest
the best and the boldest
and we know this because Kanye told us

He wakes in the morning with his flawless skin
In an enormous four poster bed and he grins Jawline to die for plus he's married to Kim in a gorgeous Fur coat that he's already in
And you can forget cologne Kanye farts pure pheromones a full length mirror by the bog
Watch the Throne
See he makes the best cup of tea
He only uses half a sugar but it tastes like three He steps out of his mansion if the skies are grey Claps his hands and the fans come and brighten his day
He waves to the waiting paparazzi passes a tray of lemonade and a plate of panda pasties It's not nasty that he should make a tasty snack, see They're mating in his garden and he's bringing back the species then he sees and fistbumps the postman Praise Yeezus!
More fanmail to open

Kanye loves you
and you should love Kanye
More importantly Kanye loves Kanye
and we know this
because Kanye told us

When I say he's from the street
I mean he's on the street Greeting everyone he meets and it's beyond belief knocked up my wife with a high five the highlight of my life sired a child on my behalf
My, what a nice guy

I know right but with genetics this miraculous why would he even need to remix his ejaculate?
When asexual eugenics is exceedingly spectacular Erection?
Fabulous!
Conception?
Miraculous!
He sleeps with Kim for fun, but he really doesnt need to When Kanye reproduces he splits like an amoeba He's the key to prevent humanity's destruction he can build IKEA flatpacks without the instructions
He transcends the proletariat's class struggle
He can travel through time and he can juggle

He visited the third world, made dirty water sanitized Met an orphan girl and Autotuned her daddy back to life Brought peace to the Middle East and ceased global conflict manipulates the world so it's just the way he wants it Reiterates for all that he can silence the racists
Who are you to say he's not the first black spaceship?
Leaps into the sky seeding life on other planets
The universe can't even exist without him, can it?
What's triggered this?
He's shrieking his lungs out He's talking gibberish and speaking in tongues wow

Kanye loves you
