

We Know

Dan Bull

I started on the corner - when I ate my first Dorito
Now I'm stacking chips - I work in a casino
All black everything - wearing a tuxedo
Nah, I'm black from head to toe - dressing as an emo
I'm getting deep throat - streaming it from TiVo
Ladies love me - ask my mommy, she knows
I screw around with models - I sculpted out of Fimo
The sickest music videos - I ripped them off of VEVO
This is my jam - I use it when I eat toast
I run the East Coast - jogging beaches up in Felixstowe
Gotta bump with bloodsucker - bloody mosquito
Spread the menace to society - delivering the Beano

We know who you really be though
These boasts ain't piquing my libido
We know just who you really be though
So cease stroking your ego, you geek, oh!

So fresh and so clean - set the spin cycle to eco
I like my clothes like I like my coffee - cap or chino
You can't see me - I'm visiting a peep show
No other baller in my league - I play solo Pro Evo
I move keys off the scale - press the piano's C-note
A hundred kilos of green - that's the size of CeeLo
I can blaze all day - 'till I suffer heat stroke
Popping mad pills - but they're only a placebo
With a stomach full of acid - mostly amino
I spit heat - when I eat a jalapeño
Tight raps come out my mouth - vomiting up a burrito
I go deep quick - when I swim, I need floats
Taking the piss when I rhyme - hence the weak flows
"Say hello to my little friend" - a quote from Al Pacino
"I shot a man" - sang Johnny Cash regarding Reno
Put people in trunks before I wet them - speedo
