

Wolves

Dan Bull

Wolves, they're like dogs
But a bit different 'cause they're wild
And instead of barking, they say "ooh"
And that's the difference betwixt wolves and dogs

I'm sure there's more
But I ain't an expert in that sort
Of thing, so forgive me
If I'm factually wrong

This, uh, this song is more of a filler track
Than some of the others on the album, I will confess Um, but you know, what can you expect from an eighteen track al bum?
Pure gold on all of them?
I suppose if it is "the best album in the world" that is what y ou would expect but, uh
Shut, shut up
