Blinded By The Lights

Dan Caplen

How did he not find the baggy, with his hand in my shoe?
Way too close for me, at least they allowed me through
Should be a good night in here, Ramo in the main room
People keep pushing me though, no reception on my phone
And I'm thinking

Lights are blinding my eyes
And I'm thinking
People pushing by, and walking off into the night
Lights are blinding my eyes
Oh no no no no
People pushing by, and walking off into the night

These look well speckly, bit of green bit of blue
Threes is well cheap though, so I'll take three if I need to Right I'm on the plan, I wish this bouncers would go away
Borrow water off this man, here goes nothing
And I'm thinking

Lights are blinding my eyes
And I'm thinking
People pushing by, and walking off into the night
Lights are blinding my eyes
Oh no no no no
People pushing by, and walking off into the night

Lights are blinding my eyes
Oh no no no no
People pushing by, and walking off into the night
Lights are blinding my eyes
People pushing by, and walking off into the night

Lights are blinding my eyes
People pushing by, and walking off into the night
