

Love Keeps Falling Down

Dan Caplen

Yeah, our love keeps falling down, falling down, keeps falling
Yeah, our love keeps falling down, falling down, falling down
Yeah, our love keeps falling

You ever get a feeling but just ignore it, -nore it
I wake up on the wrong side of you, ooh
I'm tryna find a reason but can't ignore it, -nore it
'Cause right now it's lose and lose

So what you say when two hearts turn cold?
And what you do when a rose grows old in your home?
'Cause I don't know
And where'd you go when you keep on trying?
Nothing changing and pressure's rising
Can't deny it, we both know

That our love keeps falling down, falling down, keeps falling
Yeah, our love keeps falling down, falling down, falling down
And our arms keep reaching out
We're holding on to something
Yeah, our love keeps falling down, falling down

We both know

That our love keeps falling down, falling down, keeps falling
Yeah, our love keeps falling down, falling down, falling down
And our arms keep reaching out
We're holding on to something
Yeah, our love keeps falling down (Falling down)
Falling down (Fall down, fall down)

But we still keep it going
Yeah, we're still riding, riding
We're all fired up with nowhere to go, oh no
And even at our lowest
We still keep it riding, riding
We just get high to hide our woes
And do you know?

So what you say when two hearts turn cold?
What you do when a rose grows old in your home?
'Cause I don't know
And where d'you go when you keep on trying?
Nothing changing and pressure's rising
Can't deny it, we both know

That our love keeps falling down, falling down, keeps falling
Yeah, our love keeps falling down, falling down, falling down
And our arms keep reaching out
We're holding on to something
Yeah, our love keeps falling down, falling down

We both know

That our love keeps falling down, falling down, keeps falling
Yeah, our love keeps falling down, falling down, falling down
And our arms keep reaching out

We're holding on to something
Yeah, our love keeps falling down
Falling down, falling down
Whoa oh oh oh oh (Fall down, fall down)
Fall down, fall down, fall down (Fall down, fall down)
Yeah yeah (Fall down, fall down)

Yeah, love keeps falling down (Fall down)
Yeah, our love keeps falling down, falling down, falling down
And our arms keep reaching out
We're holding on to something
Yeah, our love keeps falling down
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Oh, our love keeps falling down
