

Undo

Dan Caplen

Last night
It almost felt just like it did the first time
We put all our injuries to one side
Wrapped ourselves in white lies
And decorated them in gold
Yeah, morning
We get that feelin' like we're falling
Not into love but back into the same old thing
These arms I'm in are losing what they're trying to hold

Now we're standing in the rain
Trying to unmake all our mistakes
Wishing we could wash away
What we've been through, can we undo?

I want to (I want to) undo (Undo)
Don't you want to (I want to) undo (Undo)

Yeah
Press rewind
Like love is just a tape of good times
To see you how I did when love was blind
But our hands are tied
No matter how hard we try

The break of the day brings a life with the curtains
Breaking the silence like sirens were turning
Breaking our hearts but we know this ain't working
This ain't working, no

Now we're standing in the rain
Trying to unmake all our mistakes
Wishing we could wash away
What we've been through, can we undo?

I want to (I want to) undo (Undo)
Don't you want to (I want to) undo (Undo)

Breaking our hearts but we know this ain't working
Breaking our hearts but we know this ain't working
Breaking our hearts but we know this ain't working
This ain't working (No)

Oh yeah

That's why we're standing in the rain
Trying to unmake all our mistakes
Wishing we could wash away
What we've been through, can we undo?

I want to (I want to) undo (Undo)
Don't you want to (I want to) undo (Undo)

I want to (I want to) undo (Undo)
Don't you want to (I want to) undo (Undo)
