

Be Alone

Dan Croll

Oh, be alone...

Hey you, well you know me
Could I ask a favor to be me
I was just thinking about some alone time with me
Call it selfish, call it greed, call it anything you like
Cause I was just thinking about some alone time with me, so baby
y

Everybody wants to be alone, I like to be alone sometimes
Everybody wants to be alone (be alone)
Everybody wants to be alone, I care to be alone tonight
Everybody wants to be alone (be alone) sometimes

Never meant to start a fight
Never asked you pull apart and match my life
You make me well but I'm in hell
And it's clear to see
From the minute that I wake up to the inevitable breakup
Take a step back, get my head back in the game
So baby

Everybody wants to be alone, I like to be alone sometimes
Everybody wants to be alone
Everybody wants to be alone, I care to be alone tonight
Everybody wants to be alone (be alone)

Oh, be alone...

Everybody wants to be alone, I like to be alone sometimes
Everybody wants to be alone (be alone)
Everybody wants to be alone, I care to be alone tonight
Everybody wants to be alone (be alone) sometimes

Sometimes, sometimes...
