Ever At Your Side

Dan Croll

Remember when I called, remember when I stayed that night,
And I, was ever at your side.
Remember when I rang, you came round the next day, through cold rain to hear me say,
Well I just wanna love,I wanna know your secret child,
And I'll be ever at your side.
You call me up, if you ever feel the same way,
And if you ever wanna sail away, you know I'll sail away too.

Well I just wanna go down,
Wanna have your sweet child,
And I'll be ever at your side.
Yeah I just wanna love,
I wanna know your secret child,
And I'll be ever at your side.
Yes I just wanna love,I wanna know your secret child,
And I'll be ever at your side.

Maybe I'm wrong, maybe I'm right?
I'll put the brothers and sisters on play,
Maybe I'll call, maybe too soon?
Baby left me, never came back.
Go down, wonder how sweet child,
That I'll, be ever at your side.

Well I just wanna love,
I wanna know your secret child,
That I'll, be ever at your side.
Yeah, I just wanna love,
I wanna know your secret child,
That I'll, be ever at your side.
Yeah, I just wanna love,
I wanna know your secret child,
That I'll, be ever at your side.
