

Marion

Dan Croll

On a night where you're so,
Contemplating you want to go home,
Cause these harsh winds,
And this orange glow,
In the background we'll stand,
With these cameras held in our hands,
Flashes like fireworks in your eyes,
And Polaroid pictures of emerald skies

Marion, wont you,
Take my hand so you can
Marion, wont you,
Take my hand so you can,

Follow,
So follow,
So follow,
So follow,

Wipe the dust from your eyes,
hold the ground where your home lies,
Cause these guidelines won't hold,
What this storm is about to throw down,
When your ready we'll go,
Down to the light,
But we'll step outside and its,
No longer night,
Cause the storms been and gone,
But stay now won't you,

Marion, wont you,
Take my hand so you can,
Marion, wont you,
Take my hand so you can,

Follow
So follow
So follow
So follow

Take my hand so you can
Marion, wont you,
Take my hand so you can

Follow,
So follow,
So follow,
So follow,
