

Slip Away

Dan Croll

I'm not the type of guy to quit, but sometimes I'd like to
I'd run for the hills
Honest work, simple thrills
Steady wage, hey

Had enough of Hollywood
And all the city surrounding
Can I go it alone?
Pull the rug from below
All the way, hey

Time is never going to stop or hesitate
Why are we spending all our money just to sit and wait?
I'm packing my bags, making a play
Oh man what a feeling it could be to slip away

Count down the days and nights till
I'm at one with some nature
Instead of dust and decay
Great divide on display
Every day, hey

Time is never going to stop or hesitate
Why are we spending all our money just to sit and wait?
I'm packing my bags, making a play
Oh man what a feeling it could be to slip away

We gave it a go, and we've got the debt to show
Time to break out whilst there's still a little room to grow

Time is never going to stop or hesitate
Why are we spending all our money just to sit and wait?
I'm packing my bags, making a play
Oh man what a feeling it could be to slip away
