

So Dark

Dan Croll

You pretend to kill the driver
I play the role of countdown timer
Three, two, one

And even though we're only joking
You're on the backseat laughing and choking
Hah, hah, hah

Happy to play the joker
Clown and the fool
Happy to thread the finest line for you

When it's dark
So dark, so dark
So dark
So dark, so dark
So dark
So dark, so

And everything that's cute and fragile
You wanna ruin, squeeze or defile
You're a hands-on kind of girl

And in a game of 'Would You Rather'
You leave us speechless with visions so vile
Good grief, Heavens above

Happy to play the joker
Clown and the fool
Happy to thread the finest line for you

When it's dark
So dark, so dark
So dark
So dark, so dark
So dark
So dark, so

Happy to play the joker
Clown and the fool
Happy to thread the finest line for you

When it's dark
So dark
When it's dark
So dark, so
