

Lion With A Sharks Head

Dan Deacon

There is a lion with a shark's head and he's roaming through the jungle
He is searching for the gold but he wants to be alone
There is a tiger with a blow job and he thinks that he's the best
He may think that now but I
I need to know for sure

And now the lion's forcing movies, wishing teeth, holding nose
And the tiger is a blue square and he's tied to these big teeth
He sees a house and a boat and a car and a rock
And a house and a boat and a car and a rock
He thinks that they are done but I
I need to know for sure

And now the lion's playing drums and the drums are made of dragons
And the dragons see the tiger and the tiger turns pink
And the tiger opens a restaurant and it is very successful
And the menu is delicious and the restaurant
Is made entirely of bees
