Ohio

Dan Deacon

I guess I sort of lied when I said it's not that bad
That dog, black cat, that little tiny man
I guess I sort of lied when I said it's not that bad
That fly, that helicopter, that red and white van

Ohio, is it too late, Ohio?

We're talking paper forks now!
We're talking bacon cuts now!
We're talking turkey, talking turkey, walking every smock now!
We're talking 16 ska bands!
We're talking 19 ska bands!
We're talking rooty suits and rooty boots and sooty moot snoo!

I guess I sort of lied when I said it's not that bad
That dog, that cat, that little tiny man
I guess I sort of lied when I said it's not that bad
That fly, that helicopter, that red and white van

Ohio, is it too late, Ohio?
