

Come To The Harbor

Dan Fogelberg

Come to the harbor and dance with me, girl
Dance by the edge of the sea
The moon will be rising
The tide will be high
Oh, come let your fancy run free

Come to the harbor
And kick up your heels
Let's dance 'til the break of the dawn
The fiddlers will play us their jigs and their reels
The summer so soon will be gone

Come to the harbor and lay with me, girl
I sail with the turn of the tide
Come to the harbor and stay with me, girl
The sea is so deep and so wide

Come to the harbor and dance with me, girl
Dance by the edge of the sea
The moon will be rising
The tide will be high
Oh, come let your fancy run free
