Lose Control

Dan Hill

Dreaming, scheming
First time I saw you
Hurting, flirting
Still you could see through

Can you read my mind?
Don't leave me behind
We are losing time
I think I'm going crazy
And nothing's gonna save me 'cause

Tonight I'm gonna lose control
No one ever has to know
Tonight I'm gonna lose control
Only you and I will know
Tonight we'll lose control

Words don't come so easy
You know why
Thoughts are cloudy
My heart keeps beating over time
Only you and I

Touch you 'til you're shaking
There's no place to hide
We are losing time
I think I'm going crazy
And nothing's gonna save me 'cause

Tonight I'm gonna lose control
No one ever has to know
Tonight I'm gonna lose control
Only you and I will know
Tonight we'll lose control

There's a time bomb in my pocket
And nothing's gonna stop it 'cause

Tonight I'm gonna lose control
(Tonight we'll lose control)
No one ever has to know
(Tonight we'll lose control)
Tonight I'm gonna lose control
(Tonight we'll lose control)
Only you and I will know
(But you and I will know)

Tonight I'm gonna lose control
(Tonight we'll lose control)
No one ever has to know
(But you and I will know)
Tonight I'm gonna lose control
(Tonight we'll lose control)
Only you and I will know
(Tonight we'll lose control)

Tonight I'm gonna lose control

```
(But you and I will know)
No one ever has to know
(You and I will know)

(But you and I will know)
No one ever has to know
(You and I will know)
