

You Are Loved

Dan Hill

When you're angry and you're hurting
And you don't know the reason why
You feel there's no one you can talk to
You're breaking down from inside
You're not alone, just open up your eyes

It's so easy to feel discouraged
Sometimes the world feels so cold
Your emotions rising and falling
You're so tired of being alone
Reach out through the darkness
I'll lead you home

When you're feeling battered and bruised
And the world's closing in on you
Just remember it gets better because
Despite it all, you are loved
You are loved

Take a look at all the people
Lonely just like you
Trying to find some meaning
Broken and confused
And the dreams you once fought for are fading far from view

When you're feeling battered and bruised
And the world's closing in on you
Just remember it gets better because
Despite it all, you are loved

Don't be so hard
On yourself this once
There's a world out there waiting
So many songs to be sung

When you're feeling battered and bruised
And the world's closing in on you
Just remember it gets better because
Despite it all, you are loved
You are loved
