

You Pulled Me Through

Dan Hill

All my life I've been a working man
That's all I know, who am to complain?
Then you blessed my life like only a woman can
You opened my soul, you made me feel whole again

You are my faith, you are my destiny
You are the heart that beats out the breath for me
You are the dream that I thought would never come true
You pulled me through
You pulled me through

You come to me in the silence of the night
You fill me with love so that I may breathe again
Then you disappear before the new day is born
All my body burns until you turn, oh baby

You are my faith, you are my destiny
You are the heart that beats out the breath for me
You are the dream that I thought would never come true
You pulled me through
You pulled me through

You are my faith, you are my destiny
You are the heart that beats out the breath for me
You are the dream that I thought would never come true
You pulled me through
You pulled me through

Ah
