

Don't Listen

Dan Mangan

Would you be so surprised
If I never came down now?
Could I fall so far
Learn to crawl?
Back to the wall
What might you say now?
Again...

But now that you came
And now that you know
Now that you're here
You can let it all go
And I tried
Yes I tried
To give it back before
You don't listen
Don't listen

Would you be so surprised
If there's something to learn now?
Could I be surprised enough to care?
Back to the wall
Where might you turn now?
How 'bout it...

But now that you came
And now that you know
Now that you're here
You can let it all go
And I tried
Yes I tried
To give it back before
You don't listen
Don't listen...
