

Long After

Dan Mangan

It's different now than it was then
Hits me now more often
One foot in the coffin

When all my days are seen to
And all my skin turns see-through
You can pull the plug 'til it comes loose
I'm gonna find new ways to love you

I'm gonna find new ways to love you
I'm gonna find new ways to love you
I'm gonna find new ways

I ain't messing around
This ain't puppy love, I'm not freaking out
This is calm and steady
Somehow, I know that you'll know
You'll know

I ain't messing around
I put all of my wild oats down
I've got stillness in my blood now
Long after I'm in the ground
I will still find ways to love you somehow

It's different now when we argue
You can read me as I read you
So let me count the ways to
Find new ways to love you

When all my days are seen to
And all my skin turns see-through
It was always clear that it was you
I'm gonna find new ways to love you

I ain't messing around
This ain't puppy love, I'm not freaking out
This is calm and steady
Somehow, I know that you'll know
You'll know

I ain't messing around
I put all of my wild oats down
And I've got stillness in my blood now
Long after I'm in the ground
I will still find ways to love you somehow

I ain't messing around
This ain't puppy love, I'm not freaking out
This is calm and steady
Somehow, I know that you'll know
You'll know
