

Looking Back

Dan McCafferty

My heart, it is broken
You and me, we agree, it's goodbye
We tried, but we tired
And we lied how we felt about it
Can't hold on when it's gone
The two of us would be wrong
I like you too much to stay
Looking back don't help
No looking back don't help

You need a higher love
One that puts you above
The pain that we feel
About it being over
Love can be strong when its gone
Looking back don't help

Don't look over your shoulder
Let sleeping dogs lie
We both know that it's over
Can't go on living a lie
Can't hold on when it's gone
The two of us would be wrong
I like you too much to stay
Looking back don't help
Looking back don't help...
