

Why

Dan McCafferty

The music in fine time
The tunes will make you smile
We all got together
Can't get it done, oh why, tell me why

The band is low down
It's nearly dirty air
The girls are cool a little flirty
Can't get it done, oh why, tell me why

Your soul can save my life
Your the rhythm makes me fly
Your heart beat drives the world
Your feel could make a hard stone
Your feel could make a hard stone cry

Lonely lonely lonely lost again, oh why
Lonely lonely lonely lost again, oh why

All alone I feel crazy
Not alone I feel fine
I'll find the mix or die tryin'
Get it done, get it done, no more why
