Dan Reeder

Do you ever listen to yourself?
Sometimes you make no sense at all
And your friends begin to wonder
If it's you or the alcohol alcohol

Imagine how it looks to us when you lean up Against the wall and your eyes try to see but they Can't seem to cut through the alcohol alcohol

It's a lesson to us all if a
Princess like you can fall
Dot dot dot

Do you ever listen to yourself? sometimes you make no sense at all and you were the girl with everything the one who had it al l alcohol
It's a lesson to us all if a princess like you can fall
