

Bach

Dan Reeder

Bach could really make those bells ring
Out of some damn love thing
Back in seventeen something

Good God, yo, you know
We don't even know if he could sing
Because back in those days
We had no way
To make recordings

Bach could really make those bells ring
Out of some damn love thing
Back in seventeen something

Bach could really make those bells ring
Out of some damn love thing
Back in seventeen something

Bach could really make those bells ring
Out of some damn love thing
Back in seventeen something
