

It Feels so Good

Dan Reeder

I have been away from work so long
I can't remember what I do
And God, it feels so good

I spend my days surfing eBay
Buying things I never knew I needed

And God, it feels so good

I have been away from work so long
I can't remember what I do
And God, it feels so good

God it feels so good
