

Totem Pole

Dan Sartain

Well I only fall for girls
That are gonna break my heart
But still I strive for danger
And the dangerous times
And when you lose your allure
I will begin to hate you
And what I really wish,
Is you were still a stranger

And my face is low,
Carved on that totem pole
And I want my teeth,
To be covered all with gold
And it hurt my pride
The way you said goodbye
Now I don't care
If I heard you're living, or you died
If I heard you're living, or you died

And when I found you alone

You looked just an angel
And I felt I filled that gap
I felt I worked that angle
And now I'm the one alone
And who's gonna have to handle
And it makes me want to kill,
It makes me want to strangle

And my face is low
Carved on that totem pole
And I want my teeth
To be covered all with gold
And it hurt my pride
The way you said goodbye
Now I don't care
If I heard you're living or you died
If I heard you're living or you died