

Jayney

Dan Seals

Ain't funny how we said good bye
First you find you're laughing then you cry
If I had the speed of light I'd see you again
Can't say how it'd happen, can't say when
How you found yours I'm yet to find mine

Jayney I'm still learning how
The only different about me is I'm holding out
Jayney I wish you could see
How everything you saw within me I've tried to be Tried... uh

Ain't it funny how the time goes by
Can't seem to forget you How I try
Can't remember now just who was you
Who got short on love and who refused
Have you found yours I'm yet to find mine

Jayney I'm still learning how
The only thing different about me is I'm holding out
Jayney I wish you could see
How everything you saw within me
I've tried to be
Tried... Uh... uh
Tried

Jayney I'm still learning how
The only thing different about me is I'm holding out
Jayney I wish you could see
How everything you saw within me I've tried to be
Tried... Uh... uh
Tried
