

Missing Someone

Dan + Shay

That buzz on the nightstand
Lit up my bedroom at 2:47
And I never have to Wonder why you're calling me
A little whiskey drunk
'Cause I know you're just missing someone
You'll knock on the front door
Dance down the hallway
Fall into my bed
Like it's a Band-Aid
You'll lie down and lie to me
Till the sun comes up
But I know you're just missing someone

You ain't tryna hurt me
Or break a heart in a hurry
No, you don't mean to use me
Like a late night lonely drug
I know you think you love me
And right now I'm all you want
But I know you're just missing someone

You'll slip your shoes on Kiss me and head home
Walk in your kitchen
And see the note that you wrote
Signed, "Sober self, the last time," on the fridge door, hangin g up
Says, "I know you're just missing someone"

No, you ain't tryna hurt me
Or break a heart in a hurry
No, you don't mean to use me
Like a late night lonely drug
I know you think you love me
And right now I'm all you want
But I know you're just missing someone

Yeah, I know you think you love me
And right now I'm all you want
And dammit, I wish that I was
But I know you're just missing someone
Yeah, I know you're just missing someone
