

Disappearing

Dan Wilson

I had a dream about you
Real as my own hand
We were side by side while the boats rolled by
By the bright summer sand
I had to cry when I woke up
For life is truly cruel
And cruelest to those who love
And who can't stay true

[Chorus]
Some nights
I feel like
I'm watching your red tail lights
Disappearing
Some nights
I feel like watching your red tail lights
Disappearing

Oh-oh-oh [x2]

I could see the future out so far

Like the county fair balloon
Red and rising in a blue, blue sky
Until there's only blue
You might be a fool for your love
She may rule your every move
But if you let her slip away from you
You might be nothing but a fool

Oh-oh-oh

[Chorus]

Oh-oh-oh
(Disappearing)
Oh-oh-oh
(Disappearing)

[Sara Bareilles:]
Some nights I feel like
Disappearing
Some nights I feel like
Disappearing
