

Blood Wolf

Dance Gavin Dance

Sometimes ain't nothing what it seems
Feel like we're living in a dream
And nothing's ever guaranteed

They say they have the answers
We say they're full of shit
They got lots of pretty fan girls
Rather be celibate

Keep all your precious banter
We're chasing hella rich
They do it for the front page
Us, for the hell of it

I've eaten thousands of my words like bees
Then ignored stinging sensation
And enjoyed the feast

With arms wide open and you're takin me high
If its technically creed I won't stamp you

River
You look so far from way up
Down below
They live for a tunnel
We're compelled to follow

Tunnel vision
Stuntin' on mountains
Tunnel vision
So stuck trying to blow it up
Forgot you know how to climb

Tryin to blow it up
Tryin to blow it up
Tryin to blow it up
Tryin to blow it up

Dress, text, breakfast
Rhino died, got new T-Rex
Gratitude from battle wounds
We're not dead but we could be soon
Soon soon soon

Sometimes ain't nothing what it seems
Feel like we're living in a dream
And nothing's ever guaranteed

We'll likely end up on our knees
Best thing we did was evergreen
We'll never find out what it means

They're gonna try to turn you into a bastard
On your way to financial bliss
In the hands of the impotent masters
Cum inside the bottomless pit

They say they have the answers

Keep all your precious banter

River
Down below

Tunnel vision

Tryin to blow it up
Tryin to blow it up
Tryin to blow it up
Tryin to blow it up

Gratitude from battle wounds
We're not dead but we could be soon

Forgot you know
Forgot you know
Forgot you know
Forgot you know
We're not dead but we could be soon

Forgot you know
Forgot you know
Forgot you know
Forgot you know
