

Should've come back
But I covered up all of the spaces
It's coming out nothing but aces
We gotta cover all of the bases
Erase this, the idol faceless

You wanna be the one who's called now
Caught you with your guard down
Now you're gonna get run out of this place
You wanna scream without a loud sound
Better catch your breath now
You're the only one who's running this race

You can't fake it, that's been your whole life
You can't shake that feeling that you're not enough right?
You can't take it, so you stay out of sight
Picture perfect, tell the world that all your lyrics lie

Don't owe you shit (In the back with a bottle and a new feel)
After all you've done (Trying hard not to brag but I'm keeping it real)
Just a remnant (And you know I'm the cream of my every dream) Can't escape your precious karma (Making it look easy but that's just how it seems)
You deserve it (And I can't wait to break you the bad news) {Take a look in my melodic brain}
You're still on the run (If I'm in your life then you're the one I wanna use ) {Is it a fraction of your potential?}
Why you nervous? (If I'm in your life then you're the one I wanna choose) {H e said, "why is everyone here so ugly?"}
Could it be you know the end has come? (If I'm in your life, choose)

It rains
Blood on the lawn
I pray
They'll leave me alone
That's in the mail, unveil the body
One in done to the dome
You can't tell or tell nobody
If ain't nobody home
My toleration, across the nation
I'll pass the patience around the globe

Should've come back
But I covered up all of the spaces
It's coming out nothing but aces
We gotta cover all of the bases
Erase this, the idol faceless

Should've come back
But I covered up all of the spaces
It's coming out nothing but aces
We gotta cover all of the bases
Erase this, the idol faceless

You wanna be the one who's called now
Caught you with your guard down
Now you're gonna get run out of this place
You wanna scream without a loud sound
Better catch your breath now
You're the only one who's running this race
