

Great Divide

Dance Nation

Will you be the one tonight
Will you rich me here
And try to make a right
In silence hear my heart and mind
It keep on moving me
Across the great divide, tonight
Tonight, tonight
Tonight, tonight

If every breath you is my pain
Will you toutch my hear
And heal me once again
Will you give me wings to fly
Will you take me home
Across the great divide, tonight
Tonight

Will you be the one tonight
Will you be the one tonight
