

Stale Beard

dandelion hands

Bright lights shine right through me
Ghostly figures playing chess for money
Lonely fingers, bittersweet and ugly
Backwards V's cover all the honey

You will never be free
You are all you can see

Your veins run right through me
Awkward encounters at our favorite movies
Laugh at all your jokes when you're not even funny
Visit all the bars when it's nice and sunny

You will never be free
You are all you can see
