

Get In The Ring

Danger Danger

Everybody's trying so hard to save me
My patience runnin' thin
Playing all my cards from the Devil's deck
Bet twenty one to win

C'mon, C'mon
Yeah, you think you can take me
C'mon, C'mon
You got my back to the wall
C'mon, C'mon
If you think you can take me
Watch the hammer fall

Get it the ring

You're pointing your finger
Like it's made of lead
You've crossed the point of no return
Adrenaline junkie like a moth to the flame
You lit the fire that made you burn

C'mon, C'mon
Yeah, you think you can take me
C'mon, C'mon
You got my back yo the wall
C'mon, C'mon
If you think you can take me
Watch the hammer fall

Get it the ring

Yeah, I think It's time to call on your bluff
So c'mon, c'mon, c'mon
Show me everything you're made of

Get in the ring
