

Hard

Danger Danger

Empty canvas in her head painted black or blue or red Cause she don't care picture perfect little world broke the spi rit of the girl
Now she don't care

He left, he left, and she took it hard

Empty chamber in the gun maybe next time it's the one, but he d on't care
He was much too proud to let her see him cry
Now he ain't too proud to let her see him die
Cause he don't care

She left, she left, and he took it hard

He left
Cold words
Suffer
Their love
Freedom
Broken
You live
Hello

Daddy left my little girl
Left her all alone
Always thought she was the reason
Daddy had to go
She lives with the pain
She hides her fear in shame
And I just want to be the one
To make it go away
I see her drownin' and it kills me
'Cause I can't save her

She cried
Goodbye
Inside
Denied
Is pain
The chain
Your lie
