

I Don't Need You

Danger Danger

Lose my number, forget my name
Keep all my shit just go away
You suck me dry, leaving me numb
I curse the day I whispered
You're the one, the one, the one
I was wrong, I was wrong, I was wrong
You're poison in my veins, acid in my rain
Like a bullet in my brain
I don't need you
You haunt me like a house
You're bad taste in my mouth
Like a stain that won't come out

I don't need you, I'm trippin' day-glo
I'm dead inside
You're kisses taste like suicide
You're not my habit
I'm not your whore
I'll kick you cold
I won't be crawlin' back for more

Broken skin, velvet tongue
Dogtooth violet kiss the sun
You were deaf and I was dumb
