

Wide Awake And Dead

Danger Danger

Bad luck seems to follow me
Cruel words choke the air I breathe
Can't stand to even look at me
Father listen to me

Closed your ears to the things I say
Closed your eyes to the child in pain
One day I'm gonna blow you away
Mother listen to me

Show the scars that you cannot see
Can't hold the pain locked inside of me

Closed my eyes
Buried me alive
Wide awake and dead
Burned my soul from the life I'll never know
Wide awake and dead

Crucify me for the words I speak
Close your eyes and pray your soul to keep
Don't know how you can even sleep
When the sky is falling down

Let you conscience spread its darkened wing
Forgotten child and its suffering
Deceit is quiet but the truth can sing
Mother listen to me

Sow the things that you can't reap
Can't hide from the things you did to me
