

Destroy Yourself

Dangerkids

And I will never be the same again, and I,
And I will never be the same, yeah.
And I will never be the same again, and I,
I will never be the same!

I see the world from somewhere else,
Lost in everyone.
With every compromise, I lose myself
To the person I've become.

You keep pushing me down,
To get the upper hand,
And try to hit me where it hurts.
(The person I've become)
You keep pushing me down.

And maybe hope's a dangerous thing,
And I'm broken in the end.
You don't divide, you blur the lines,
Destroy yourself and start again!
(Destroy yourself and start again)

You've seen the world alive through wild eyes,
For everything it was.
You hear the lies and leave the truth inside
To the person you've become.

You keep pushing me down,
To get the upper hand,
And try to hit me where it hurts.
(The person you've become)
You keep pushing me down,
But you don't understand,
Yeah, it never works!

And maybe hope's a dangerous thing,
And I'm broken in the end.
You don't divide, you blur the lines,
Destroy yourself and start again!
Destroy yourself and start again!
Destroy yourself and start again!
Oh!

The walls you built to keep me out,
Kept you in..

And I will never be the same again, and I,
And I will never be the same, yeah.
And I will never be the same again, and I,
I will never be the same!

And maybe hope's a dangerous thing,
And I'm broken in the end.
You don't divide, you blur the lines,
Destroy yourself and start again!
Destroy yourself and start again!
Destroy yourself and start again!

And I will never be the same again, and I,
And I will never be the same, yeah.
And I will never be the same again, and I,
I will never be the same!
