

Inflate My Ego

Daniel Bedingfield

rang her up and her father said, "she's gone.
you're too late boy shes already been taken"
rang again what her father said was wrong
"its not tru boy daddy was mistaken"

what am i to do about her what am i to do about this thing theres no way i can feel about her
'cause i dont even know how much i love her

rang her up and her father said, "she's gone.

i consider you so expendable you might as well pack your bags and go i dont need you, my whole world revolves around me.
inflate my ego
