

Sunshine Lover

Daniel Boone

The night was long and I was oh, so lonely,
I didn't think that you had got my call,
But as the sun was rising you came to me,
And all the time I've wasted just didn't matter at all.

Oh, my sunshine lover,
Now I've discovered you need me,
I will hold you close
And I'll let you into my heart;
Oh, my sunshine lover,
There'll be no other, believe me,
'Cause you've won my heart
And no one can tear us apart.

I hurt your pride and treated you so badly,
But in the end you just walked out on me;
But now you're here, you know I'll take you gladly,
I'll make you mine forever and never let you go free.

Oh, my sunshine lover,
Now I've discovered you need me,
I will hold you close
And I'll let you into my heart;
Oh, my sunshine lover,
There'll be no other, believe me,
'Cause you've won my heart
And no one can tear us apart.
