Disillusioned

Daniel Caesar

Can't help but notice
Your find this whole life thing a drag
Think this shits bogus, it is and you know this

Seeing in my peripheral
You try to suffer your bullshit
You find it all difficult
Giving up is typical

And I'm typical like you

And I I'm scared of getting older
It weighs upon my shoulders
And you, you're scared of it too
So we maybe should get together
Take it all on better
We should try something new
Something new

Couldn't help but notice
You've been smelling the roses
Looking less mad and more focused
Focused

Damn, you cleaned up your space
Inviting folks to your place
Everybody hates Chris, not you
Everybody's sweet on you, boo

Don't make me wear all black
Just stay and throw that thing back
Don't make me wear all black
Just stay and throw that thing back

Baby, please stay, please stay, please stay

And I I'm scared of getting older
It weighs upon my shoulders
Yes and you you're scared of it too
You're scared of it too

So we maybe should get together
Take it all on better
(Take it all on better)
We should try something new
(Try something new)

Hop inside my Beamer with me, time to hit the road
Tomorrow's modern boxes, tank and gas, girl let's go
Who can swear we end up, long as it's a place that's cool
Pasadena, Malibu
Let's go somewhere new

Let's go to a boardwalk watch the people walking by We'll make fun of their outfits we'll be sitting next, we'll get high
Then find a spot that's so secluded and do what lovers do
I love being reclusive and I love being with you
