

Ocho Rios

Daniel Caesar

In the nick of time, that's when you appeared
Girl, I was lost till you found me here
My hair was long but my head was low
And now I'm here 'cause you made it so

Girl, I don't deserve you
You're the one I turn to
Never meant to hurt you

You're my saving grace, grace, grace, grace
Grace, grace, grace
You're my saving grace, grace, grace, grace

In Montego Bay in a storm of snow
I was trying not to let you go
Percocet with the Lexapro
And if you talk, won't you let me know?
As love expired, tired of the back-and-forth

Girl, I don't deserve you
You're the one I turn to
Never meant to hurt you

You're my saving grace, grace, grace, grace
Grace, grace, grace
You're my saving grace, grace, grace, grace
