

Reclaim Your Heart

Daniel Johns

Reclaim your heart
That's been rationed and fed
The tricks of a prison
The spinning clocks in your head

Reclaim your soul
It was never theirs to chain
Reclaim your courage
Come alive through this pain

Too dangerous for our art
They think love is dangerous
Too dangerous for our world
Too dangerous for us

This song is for everyone
And all that rings true
I'm your returning dove
Coming back to you

Too dangerous for our art
They think love is dangerous
Too dangerous for our world
Too dangerous for us
