

When We Take Over

Daniel Johns

We all start from love
That's why this broken heart
Ain't meant for anyone
Imprisoned by the lies
And factories in our minds
Now faith needs a lullaby

The war's not over
But love's not either
And time's not broken
It just moves slowly now

Prisoners in their pain
Will never feel the same
When we take over
When we take over

But love's not either
And time's not broken
It just moves slowly now
When we take over
