

An Angel Cry

Daniel Johnston

You got me singing 5'2" eyes of blue
Now you got me singing the blues

I was so sad when I realized
I made an angel cry

Now everybody got their own life
And even so do I
And nobody got the right to
Make an angel cry

I never meant to put you down
You know how I like to joke around
Maybe I joke around a little too much
And i never meant to touch you in a bad way
You know that I would rather die

Than make an angel cry
Angel cry
Angel cry
Angel cry
Angel cry
