

Delusion + Confusion

Daniel Johnston

Oh, I love you so
Want you to know my love grows
ANd my heart needs attention, I feel rejections
See see how I cry ain't no reason, reason why
I'm just clouded by delusion and confusion
But I know for sure you will endure
What was what were and you'll find the way to help me
I'm waiting still
