

Dream

Daniel Johnston

I had a dream
That I died
And I was a ghost (ghost, ghost)

And I appeared to Randy Yost (Yost, Yost)
And I said, "hello Randy"
But he didn't see me

And I appeared to David Thornberry (Thornberry, Thornberry)
And I said, "what's going on?
Where's Rusty? Can't you hear me?"
But he didn't notice

And Ron Harren
Was at his house, staring at a sports magazine
But I didn't say anything, because I knew I couldn't be seen

Wherever music is
Where people are
Festivals, carnivals, rummage sales
That's where I'll be
That's where I'll be

I had a dream
That I died
And I was a ghost (ghost, ghost)
