Haunt

Daniel Johnston

Those you love how they haunt
Everyone's in love
A familiar face to comfort you
What they say and do
Hey, Girl – can you see me now
Guess I up and died
Remember me like the clear blue sky
There's no reason why
And no matter where she goes
I'll be loving her so
As I pass from this world
Into the great unknown

She was a virgin queen from a magic kingdom
She played with my imagination
Fascinating my brain
So pretty I just had to stop by
She made the sweetest cherry pie
I caught her once with a look of love
Like a fool I turned aside

Fills my heart with deep regret
It's not over yet
How she laughed at my stupid jokes
Every time we met

Kinda like the dating game
Aboard the Titanic
It was weird and it was strange
I was so love sick

If I reach you from beyond the grave
Maybe you were saved
Just another day for the depraved
No matter what they say
A pregnant lady once said to me
"What's it all about"
I said, "I guess you'll never know."
And I wished that I could die
In my heart
Because
And wherever she goes
I'll be loving her so
As I pass from this world
Into the great unknown

A familiar face to comfort you
What they say and do
Hey, Girl – can you see me now
Guess I up and died
Remember me like the clear blue sky
There's no reason wy
