

Her Blues

Daniel Johnston

She knows what she's doing
She knew what she had to do
She knows what she's doing
She knew what she had to do
Her husband left her
For a prostitute
When she talks about him
She gets in a hypnotic state
When she talks about him
She gets in a hypnotic state
She says I tried to love him
But now it's too late
He tried to come back to her
She would not agree
He tried to come back to her
She would not agree
And now he's sad and she is lonely
