

Is and Always Was

Daniel Johnston

So won't you pretty up some
Let your hair hang down
Let your love come around
With a nightmare tease
As if it never was
And only if just because
It never happened before
True love at your door
And I've got you now
Even if you won't admit
Ain't I a chicken shit
Wallowing in the mud
While you're waiting for blood
Maybe the wizard of Oz
Ran out of constellation prizes
I'm not at all too surprised
I have no reward, but a promise from the Lord
And the new horizon
A never ending trip to nowhere
Not knowing we were on television
As we travelled down life's worn out highway
Let love rule our hearts
Let peace guide the planets
And if we understand it
